

FACTSWHAT DOES CENTURY BANK OF THE OZARKS DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Social Security number and income ■ account balances and payment history ■ credit history and credit scores When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customer's personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customer's personal information; the reasons Century Bank of the Ozarks chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Century Bank of the Ozarks share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	No	We don't share
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?	Call 800-248-5281 or go to www.cbozarks.com
-------------------	---

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Century Bank of the Ozarks

What we do

How does Century Bank of the Ozarks protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We strictly enforce a variety of policies and procedures that prevent unauthorized access to your personal and account information. Our staff is educated about the importance of confidentiality and privacy.

How does Century Bank of the Ozarks collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your ATM or debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Century Bank of the Ozarks does not share with our affiliates

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Century Bank of the Ozarks does not share with nonaffiliates

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Century Bank of the Ozarks does not jointly market

Other important information

Century Bank of the Ozarks is also subject to State Privacy Law known as The Missouri Right To Financial Privacy Act.